

ALL BOND PROPOSITIONS DEFEATED

WHY THE BONDS WERE DEFEATED

The Central Park Juggle Caused All the Improvement Projects to be Rejected--Responsibility for the Failure of the Bonding Scheme.

The result of the bond election proves that plans for public improvement are not to be harnessed to schemes for private enrichment. A speculative rider of rank proportions has brought the whole movement to improve and adorn the city to smash. It is disappointing but not disheartening that the public, in a fit of disgust and indignation, should have rejected the good along with the bad; still, if the lesson of the election be studied and its significance clearly appreciated, it will be understood that the vote yesterday was not so much a declaration against municipal progress and improvement as it was a rebuke to the leaders of the Council and the Mayor for the peculiar manner of dealing with the park proposition.

Oakland needs a large central park. A vast majority of the people of the city are in favor of acquiring one: they are willing to pay a liberal price for one and are disposed to stand a high rate of taxation for a few years that the city may be provided with a park worthy of the dignity and wealth of the community. But they are not willing to sanction dubious and extravagant propositions involving the expenditure unnecessarily of large sums to further speculative schemes. They are ready to tax themselves to acquire a park for the public benefit, but not for private profit. There can be progress without flimflamming, improvement without paying three prices for property.

If the proposition had been to purchase the Sather tract at its original cost a few months ago, plus 8 per cent interest, the people would have voted for it, and in all probability no fight would have been made on the bonding scheme. But the Sather tract was first shorn of its most valuable portions and then an excessive price was asked for the remainder lumped with the undesirable portions of other tracts. To cap the climax, a right of way for a rail road through the proposed park was conceded. Every detail of the park scheme seemed worked out to promote private ends and swell private gains. The people would have none of it. Unfortunately they clucked overboard the whole plan of public improvement as a rebuke to those responsible for the park scheme.

The jugglery with the park proposition is the real cause of the defeat of the bonds, which must therefore be laid at the door of Mayor Olney and the leaders of the Council. The facts were withheld from the public till less than two weeks ago. The people were led to believe the proposed park comprised a lot of the Sather tract. Only those on the inside knew that a railroad right of way through the park had been reserved. Only a few were aware that the entrance to the park had been shaved down to a narrow strip that building lots might be sold on either side. In short, the public was completely blinded as to the shape and character of the proposed park up to a few days ago. When the trickery was disclosed, public indignation was aroused; it was intensified by the methods resorted to in the effort to stifle inquiry and silence criticism—and in the end the whole bond project was covered with suspicion and obloquy.

Less than a year ago the Sather tract was sold for $215,000. About 175 acres—nearly two-thirds—of the best part of the tract were kept out of the proposed park, and the price to the city was placed at an exorbitant figure. Why was this done? Why was the fact concealed from the public? Why was a railroad to run through the park? Why were all the high points and choice building property reserved? The people of Oakland are still ready to buy the Sather tract for a park site, at its proper value—namely, $25,000, plus 8 per cent interest since it was sold by Mrs. Bruggiere. THE TRIBUNE is in favor of that, and will contribute $1000 towards raising the purchase price by subscription. This paper is now, as it has always been, in favor of parks and other municipal improvements. It has stood for every improvement project yet advanced, but it refused to sanction the Central Park scheme, which was doomed to defeat the moment its real character was exposed. It defeated the other projects embodied in the bond ordinance; consequently the Mayor and the Council who fathered the Central Park scheme have brought wreck to the whole improvement movement.

HARD WORK TO BURY THE DEAD

Russians Make Charge That Japanese Fire on the Burial Parties.

CHIEF FO, September 28, 10:30 a. m.—Russians residing here claim to have received information that the Japanese losses in the last assault on Port Arthur (which began September 19) were 7000.

A Chinese who left the fortress on September 26, says that the Russian losses were between 500 and 600.

This Chinaman says that the Japanese were unable to remain in the three supplementary forts which they had captured and that they retired at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of September 26 after enduring several days of tremendous firing from the inner forts.

He adds that the Russians attempted to bury the dead of both sides at night, because the decomposing bodies seriously menaced the health of the garrison.

The Russians allege that it is the deliberate policy of the Japanese to undermine the health of the Russian troops by means of the odors from the decomposing bodies, and that for this reason they fire on the burial parties.

One Chinese who was a member of a burial party says that the Japanese fired when he and other Chinese attempted to bury the dead. He adds that when the wind carries the odors towards the latter, they retreat.

Chinese say that the most severe attacks were made upon the supplementary forts of the Itz and Ansu mountain forts. The Russians had undermined the ground, and several hundred Japanese were blown up on September 23. Reports received from the Misotao islands mention a terrific report which shook the houses there on that date.

The Russian ships, it is reported, took no part in the battle.

From thirty to fifty shells fell daily into the Chinese new town.

One shell tore the rudder from a torpedo boat destroyer.

The Russians are now building a new fort on Liaotai promontory, bearing on the land side.

Its construction indicates that five large guns will form the nucleus of the battery.

The returns of yesterday's election show that the attack of the Realty Syndicate upon County Assessor Henry P. Dalton did not discredit him with his neighbors in his home precinct. The vote on the proposition to purchase the Realty Syndicate's land for the Central Park site in the Third precinct of the Fourth ward was 21 for and 137 against. Henry P. Dalton lives in that precinct.

A GOOD CITIZEN

The statement of Henry Rogers, vice president of the Oakland Bank of Savings, respecting the character and value of the proposed Central Park had great weight with the voters, and very justly for Mr. Rogers is one of the oldest and best citizens of Oakland. He has lived here for forty years, and he has always been a man of the strictest integrity. He is a solid and sagacious business man who talks little, but when he does speak states the truth without equivocation. He is a citizen and taxpayer with the courage of his convictions. The public knew that when Mr. Rogers condemned the purchase of the proposed park site he believed himself well within the truth, and in speaking his mind plainly he rendered the taxpayers a service.

MAYOR OLNEY SAYS HE IS DISAPPOINTED

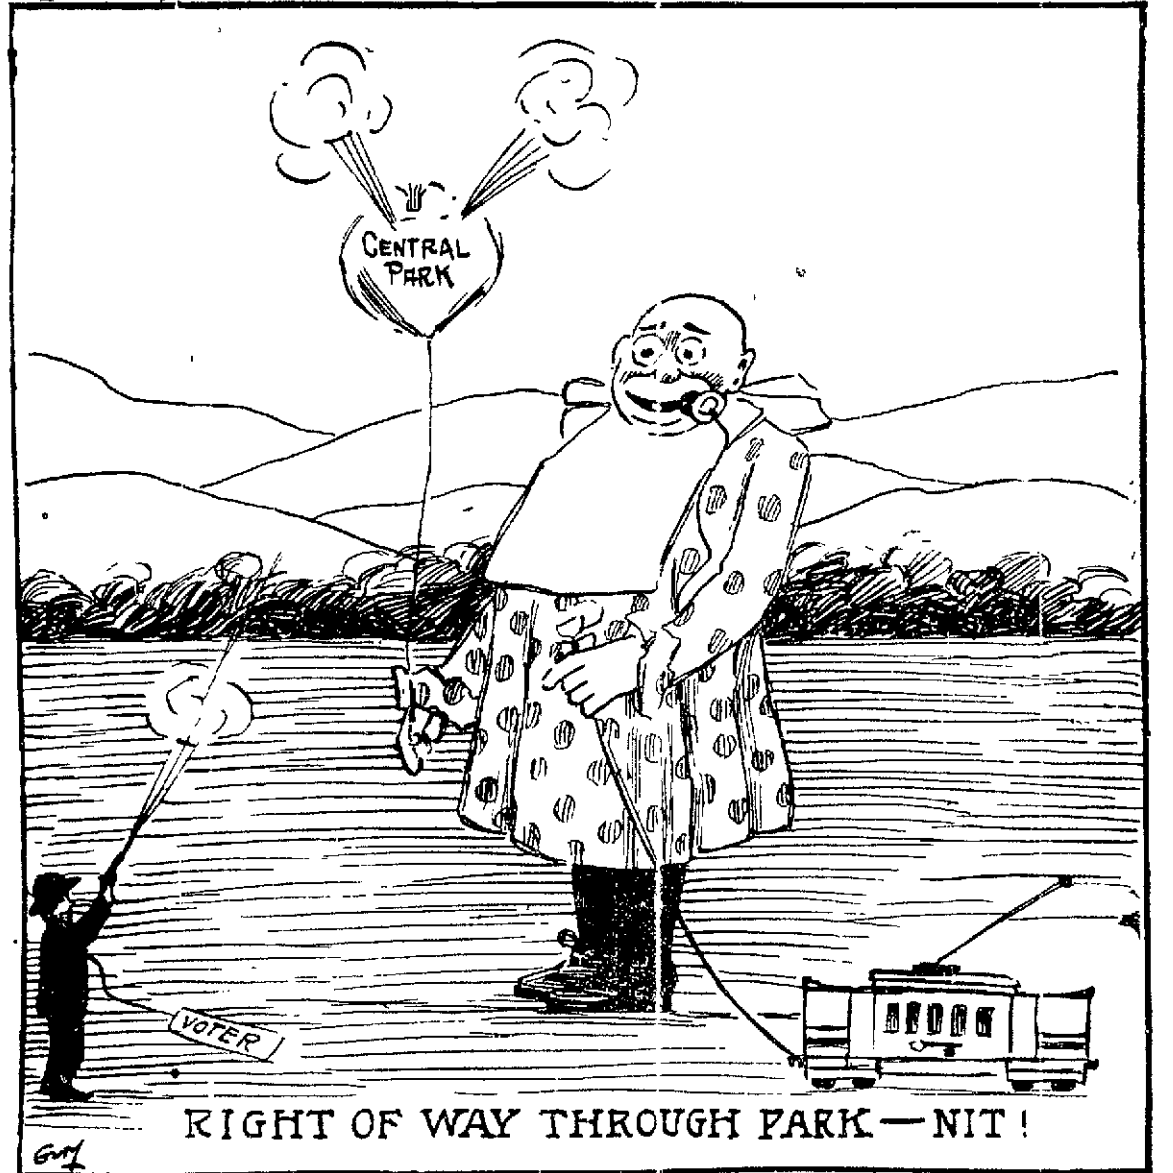

The following statement was given out today by Mayor Olney relative to the defeat of the bonds:

"If the adverse vote on the bond propositions is owing to the fact that the people are determined to have municipal water works first, then I can understand and appreciate their action, for I have a good deal of sympathy with the general idea; but if for any other reason, it is most surprising.

"The city government has not been idle on water matters and certain propositions are now under discussion.

"I did not myself want to have a general proposition for improvements submitted, provided the water question could be settled within a reasonable time, but when I became convinced that it could not be satisfactorily settled immediately, then I joined heartily in the movement to have the improvements made now, and take action in the water matter as soon as it could be done satisfactorily. I am intensely disappointed over the result.

WARREN OLNEY."

PUPILS GO ON A STRIKE

Were Told Assistant School Teacher Was Colored.

CHICAGO, September 28.—Fifty boy pickets, stationed about the McAllister public school here, prevented pupils from entering today. None of the pickets is more than 15 years of age.

700 boys and girls hooted and yelled at the teachers looking from the school windows. Every infant striker wore a badge to show that he or she belonged to a "union." Some of the badges were merely scraps of paper with the word "union" scrawled across it. Others were union buttons which their fathers had worn. Many of the strikers carried clubs. They threatened violence against any child daring to enter the schoolhouse.

The picketing was the result of a "strike" which was caused by a mistaken belief of the children that an assistant kindergarten teacher was colored.

CHICAGO, September 28.—When the case of Will J. Davis and others, charged with manslaughter in connection with the Iroquois Theater disaster, were called in Judge Kersten's court today, the attorney for the defense read a lengthy affidavit asking for a change of venue to some other court. The affidavit declares that the defendants could not secure a fair trial in Cook county, because of the prejudice existing against them.

HEAVY LOSS BY A FIRE

Damage Across the Bay Will Figure Up $45,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—A fire which started today in the laboratory of the Englell Pharmaceutical Company, at 17 and 19 Fremont street, gutted the three upper stories of the five-story building, causing a loss of $45,000.

LAST DAY TO GET ON THE GREAT REGISTER.

New Roll Will Contain About 32,000 Names—Good Work of County Clerk.

Into the office of County Clerk Cook came this morning more than 500 slips representing registrations secured by Mr. Cook's deputies who have been hard at work throughout the county during the last few days.

Each of the 500 slips means another name added to the Great Register, and the total number represents a vast deal of good work done by the County Clerk's trained men.

"The mail tomorrow morning probably will bring 500 more of these names," said Chief Deputy Clerk George Pierce today "and with that lot I think the Great Register for Alameda County will contain nearly 32,000 names, as against 29,000 of the last register."

"There has been a notable increase in Berkeley, where the Republican vote is always heavy. The roll contains 600 more names from Berkeley than were on the register from that section two years ago. "Other Republican strongholds" loom up in the shape.

"In the Sixth Ward of this city, however, which certainly cannot be called any thing like a Republican stronghold, the registration is light. I think the registration there will show that the ward is 400 names behind the number registered last time.

"Naturally this sort of news is not displeasing to General Stone, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. It is needless to say that this office has made every effort possible to get all the voters in the county, irrespective of politics, on the Great Register. If the Democratic voters are careless and indifferent, it is simply a circumstance that indicates a belief in the utility of their campaign, or at least that is what a man up a tree might deduce from the situation."

County Clerk Cook's office will be open until midnight tonight to permit tardy citizens to register. At midnight the time limit for registration expires. The registrations which come in by mail tomorrow, however, will be legal and acceptable because they will have been mailed today.

HILLARD ALLEN SUICIDES

Well Known Oakland Young Man Takes His Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—Hillard Allen, a man of 24 years, who lived with his mother, Mrs. J. M. Costigan, at 1305 Franklin street, Oakland, killed himself at the Lick House yesterday morning by means of gas. Despondency on account of an incurable illness that resulted from the kick of a horse is believed to have been the cause.

The young man was a stepson of J. M. Costigan, and the latter is the father of A. B. Costigan, the grain merchant who recently failed. Business troubles, though, had nothing to do with the suicide.

"I am not surprised," said Mr. Costigan last night, "that Allen has taken his own life. He has been suffering excruciating pain. He knew there was no hope of recovery. He had gone over to San Francisco to visit his sister, Mrs. R. L. Dunn of 2005 Lyon street, for a day or two. He was practically a cripple and undoubtedly the trouble led him to kill himself."

"My boy has been suffering for a long time," Mrs. Costigan added. "He was obliged to wear a cast and the end would have come some day soon, probably. It could have been nothing but despondency over his health that caused him to take his life. I am sure of that. There were no money troubles of any sort which could have caused him the least anxiety."

Allen went to the Lick House at 3 o'clock yesterday morning and told the clerk his name was Langford. At noon the odor of gas emanating from his room was detected, and when the door was forced open the young man was found dead. He had gone to bed with some of his clothing on and had turned the gas fully on.

In his pocket was a purse containing a prize fight ticket and $2.50. Detective Burke found on his coat the name of R. C. Atkins & Co., Montgomery street, and from that firm he obtained information that led to the identification.

R. L. Dunn, the brother-in-law of Allen, identified the body and said that Allen had been melancholy of late on account of some trouble he had with his spine. Dunn said that about two years ago Allen was kicked in the back by a horse and had never recovered from it. The kick rendered him almost a helpless cripple. He lay in bed for some time after the accident but was eventually able to get about. In a plaster of paris cast, but he was never able to work, nor was he ever afterward a well man. Dunn says that Allen brooded over this and that he must have killed himself for this reason.

The funeral will be held from the family home on Franklin street tomorrow afternoon and will be private.

The heaviest losers were Upton Bros., printers, $200 and Mrs. Ada Bourne of San Jose, owner of the building, $17,000. The Englehart Company was burned out and losses by water were sustained by the West Coast Wire and Iron Company, the Oakland Hydraulic Engineering and Supply Company and Mack & Company, wholesale druggists. The latter firm occupies an adjoining building.

MOB FAILS TO HANG MURDERER

BLACKFOOT, Idaho, September 28.—While the funeral procession of Deputy Sheriff Sweet, who was murdered by a man named Conroy Sunday night, while the latter and his companions were attempting to rob some section men, was passing to the cemetery today, a mob was hastily organized, a rope procured and a rush made for the gall for the purpose of lynching Conroy. The officers, however, were too quick for the half-formed mob and with the aid of hastily sworn-in deputies, protected Conroy and persuaded the crowd to disperse. Feeling is very high and more trouble is feared tonight.

POPE RECEIVES CHIEF JUSTICE

ROME, September 28.—The Pope today received in private audience Cayetano Arellano, Chief Justice of the Philippine Islands. The Pontiff was most interested in Justice Arellano's account of the situation in the Philippines.

PRINCE IN NEW TRAIN TIME IS CHANGED

HE WILL WRITE A ROMANCE WHILE SERVING TIME.

Time hangs heavy on the hands of Julius Steinberg, the self-styled "Prince," who is serving a six months' sentence in the county jail for robbery, and in his abundant leisure hours the Prince has concocted a thrilling romance, with which he confidently expects to create a literary sensation when the gates swing outward and he no longer languishes behind the county bars.

"Juanita, or the French Girl's Romance," is the title of his latest literary effort. "Thrilling and interesting," it is described by the Prince, who has been sentenced to the county jail for robbery, and in his abundant leisure hours the Prince has concocted a thrilling romance, with which he confidently expects to create a literary sensation when the gates swing outward and he no longer languishes behind the county bars.

The "Prince" is now debating concerning the choice of publisher for the child of his fertile brain and feels pretty sure that he has selected the right publisher. To a select few he has described the plot of "Juanita," etc., and to the very inner circle of his choice company the author has read extracts from the romance.

The Prince has two paid old French families in New Orleans figuring in his story. They are the de la Rive and the de la Roche. Their plot is to kidnap the daughter of his neighbor. When the war of the rebellion broke out, the heads of these two houses got together and agreed to put all their gold and family jewels in a deep, dark vault, between the two houses. It is further agreed that if one is killed in the war the survivor shall have the ownership of the gold and hidden jewels.

Francisco, however, inspired by greed, kills his neighbor before he goes to war. When he goes to take a step at the gold, attended by two servants, the door swings forward, and the men all are buried in a living grave.

Meanwhile a daughter, Juanita, has been born to the children of these old Frenchmen, and in Europe Juanita becomes a great prima donna, beautiful, rich, beloved. She returns to the old home, eventually, and in a vision, while seated by the old fireplace, she sees her grandfather killed, sees the son, covered with the blood of the treasure, sweat the hiding place of the treasure, sweat the hiding place of the treasure, sweat the hiding place of the treasure, sweat the hiding place of the treasure.

TELEGRAPH LINE IS READY

NEW POSTAL WIRE FROM DENVER TO SALT LAKE SOON TO OPEN.

Passengers Had Better Look to Their Time Cards.

Passengers Had Better Look to Their Time Cards.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28.—People who intend to go traveling next Saturday had better carefully study the timetables or else there will be some quashing of teeth.

Changes in trains are to be pretty general, and to show the immensity of the alterations and the widespread influence of the Southern Pacific, two railroads which were not before under the control of the passenger officials in the Southern Pacific building are also affected.

These two roads are the North Shore and the California Northwestern.

Every year at this time the summer schedule is done away with and the winter schedule is put into effect. This means the dropping of certain trains which handled the summer travel.

There are three big divisions affected by the regular semi-annual change.

They are the Western division, which runs the trains out of Oakland pier to Sacramento, to Fresno, to Santa Rosa and on the east side of the bay. The Sacramento division is also affected and takes in the trains on both lines on the Sacramento valley; also the overland train to Reno.

The San Joaquin lines are also changed. There is a change in the train between Fresno and Los Angeles.

The Coast division also comes in for its share. The train from San Francisco to Los Angeles via Paso Robles has its time for starting altered.

On the California & Northwestern the changes take effect on Saturday, and on the North Shore not until October 5.

DIED AT THE COUNTY INFIRMARY

J. Scott Hill, a native of Boston, aged 48 years, died at the County Hospital this morning. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral, as an effort is being made to communicate with relatives in the East.

RUSSIA'S VIEW OF AMERICA

THEY NOTE HER DETERMINATION TO DISREGARD INTERNATIONAL QUESTION.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 28.—7:50 p. m.—The Russian press has heretofore studiously avoided editorial reference to President Roosevelt's letter to the delegates to the Inter-Parliamentary Union on September 24, on the subject of calling a conference of the nations of the world at The Hague to continue the work of the conference called by Emperor Nicholas in 1889.

The only approach thereto is a quotation in the Russ this morning from the Berlin press opinion saying that it was evident that the Americans were determined to disregard the question whether or not intervention in the Far Eastern question at this time would be agreeable to either of the combatants.

CATHOLICS MEET IN NEW YORK

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS WILL BE DISCUSSED BY BISHOPS.

NEW YORK, September 28.—At the eucharistic congress today Bishop Macauley appointed a committee to draw up resolutions denouncing the French Government for its action toward the Catholics in that country.

Father Dougherty asked that copies of the resolutions be ordered sent to the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of New York.

When this suggestion was made Archbishop Farley said:

"I think that would be going too far and mingling up things. The Catholic church does not belong to the President of the United States or the Governor of the State of New York. It belongs to the Holy See."

FRENCHMEN AT WHITE HOUSE

VISITORS FROM FRANCE PRESENTED TO THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, September 28.—Twenty French workmen who are in this country to study labor and industrial conditions, were presented to President Roosevelt today.

CONVENTION OF LAWYERS

SESSION OF AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION TRANSACTS IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

ST. LOUIS, September 28.—The final session of the convention of the American Bar Association was occupied today in receiving committee reports, the election of officers and the transaction of routine business.

A resolution was introduced by Ferdinand Shack, of New York, and adopted that the association expresses its deep gratification at the steps recently taken by the Inter-Parliamentary Union toward the settlement of controversies between nations of the same manner as disputes between individuals are settled, that is, by judgment, in accordance with recognized principles of law and this resolution records its great satisfaction at the announcement by the President of the United States of his intention to comply with the request made to him by the Inter-Parliamentary Union that he invite the nations to a conference.

The report of the standing committee on Uniform State Laws was adopted. A report of the special committee on Indian Legislation was received and filed. It embodies the conclusion that "in the majority of the Indian reservations the prompt carrying out of the provisions of the 'severalty act' approved February 8, 1888, is apparently the best practical solution of the Indian problem."

The special committee on Penal Laws, and Prison Discipline reported favorably on the resolution submitted to it two years ago relative to the proposition to establish a laboratory in the Department of Justice at Washington for the study of criminal, paper and defective classes. The resolution favoring the establishment of such a laboratory, meets with the approval of the committee, which, having investigated the subject and its purposes, desires to test the value of the same and recommends the adoption of the resolution.

YOUNG ROBBER SHOT

He Fired at a Police Officer and Was Shot Down.

BAKERSFIELD, September 28.—Alexander G. Myers, an eighteen-year-old boy who came here a few weeks ago with his widowed mother from Salt Lake City and had been employed in a local department store, was shot and fatally wounded by Policeman Mort Hill at 1:00 o'clock this morning while in the act of burglarizing Derges and Smiley's store on Nineteenth street.

He fired one shot at the officer before the latter shot.

He died in a few minutes after declaring that he had no accomplices, but the officers believed that another was implicated.

Another boy was arrested on suspicion this morning, but was released, he having proved an alibi.

VACCINATION CASE IN COURT

C. E. KINNARD WANTS HIS CHILDREN RECEIVED AT SCHOOL.

Judge Melvin gave almost the entire time of his court today to hearing arguments in the case brought by C. E. Kinnard to test the legality of the vaccination law.

Mr. Kinnard's children were denied admittance to the Oakland high school, having failed to comply with the vaccination statute, and the father at once brought his suit, making the Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools defendants.

Associated with him in presenting arguments to the court today was Attorney J. R. Jones, who appeared as the representative of the Anti-Compulsory Vaccination League.

FALLS INTO WATER

Joseph O'Brien Loses His Life at Oakland Mole.

Joseph O'Brien, aged 15 years, son of a plumber in this city, was drowned in the Bay at the Oakland Mole this afternoon.

The boy had been engaged in scrubbing the ferry boat Berkeley, which was tied up at the Mole, when he lost his balance and fell overboard.

An attempt was made to save the boy's life, but his body could not be found.

A search is now in progress.

BRIDEGROOM IS ON TRIAL

ACCUSED OF PERJURY FOR SWEARING BRIDE WAS OF LEGAL AGE.

Walter O'Garra, accused of perjury, his offense consisting in a declaration made to Deputy County Clerk Hanley that Mary Dunning, whom he wished to marry, was of age, when it is alleged that she was not, was placed on trial today before a jury in Judge Hall's court.

O'Garra has to his discredit a conviction for criminal assault, for which he was sentenced to a term in San Quentin on April 1, 1902. This is mentioned against him in the complaint charging him with perjury. The latter offense is alleged to have been committed on May 1 of this year. O'Garra was out on parole at the time when he sought a marriage license with which he purported to wed Mary Dunning.

DEFAULT HIS $5,000 BAIL

NEW YORK, September 28.—When the case of Thomas M. MacCauley, former president of the International Mercantile Agency, was called in the Court of Special Sessions today, MacCauley was not present. Assistant District Attorney Garvin announced that he had been told to believe that MacCauley had defaulted his $5,000 bail bond.

JAPANESE HAVE NOT YET CROSSED THE RIVER

Marshal Oyama Getting His Men in Line Before he Strikes
Final Blow.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 27, 6:15 p. m.—The latest official advices from the front are silent on the subject of the Japanese flanking movements east and west of Mukden, from which the war office concludes that Field Marshal Oyama has not yet begun to press his advance from Sianchan or up the Liao river valley indicating that there is still further delay in the general advance.

The Associated Press is now authorized to definitely deny the statement that the Japanese in any force have crossed the Hun river about fifty miles from Mukden.

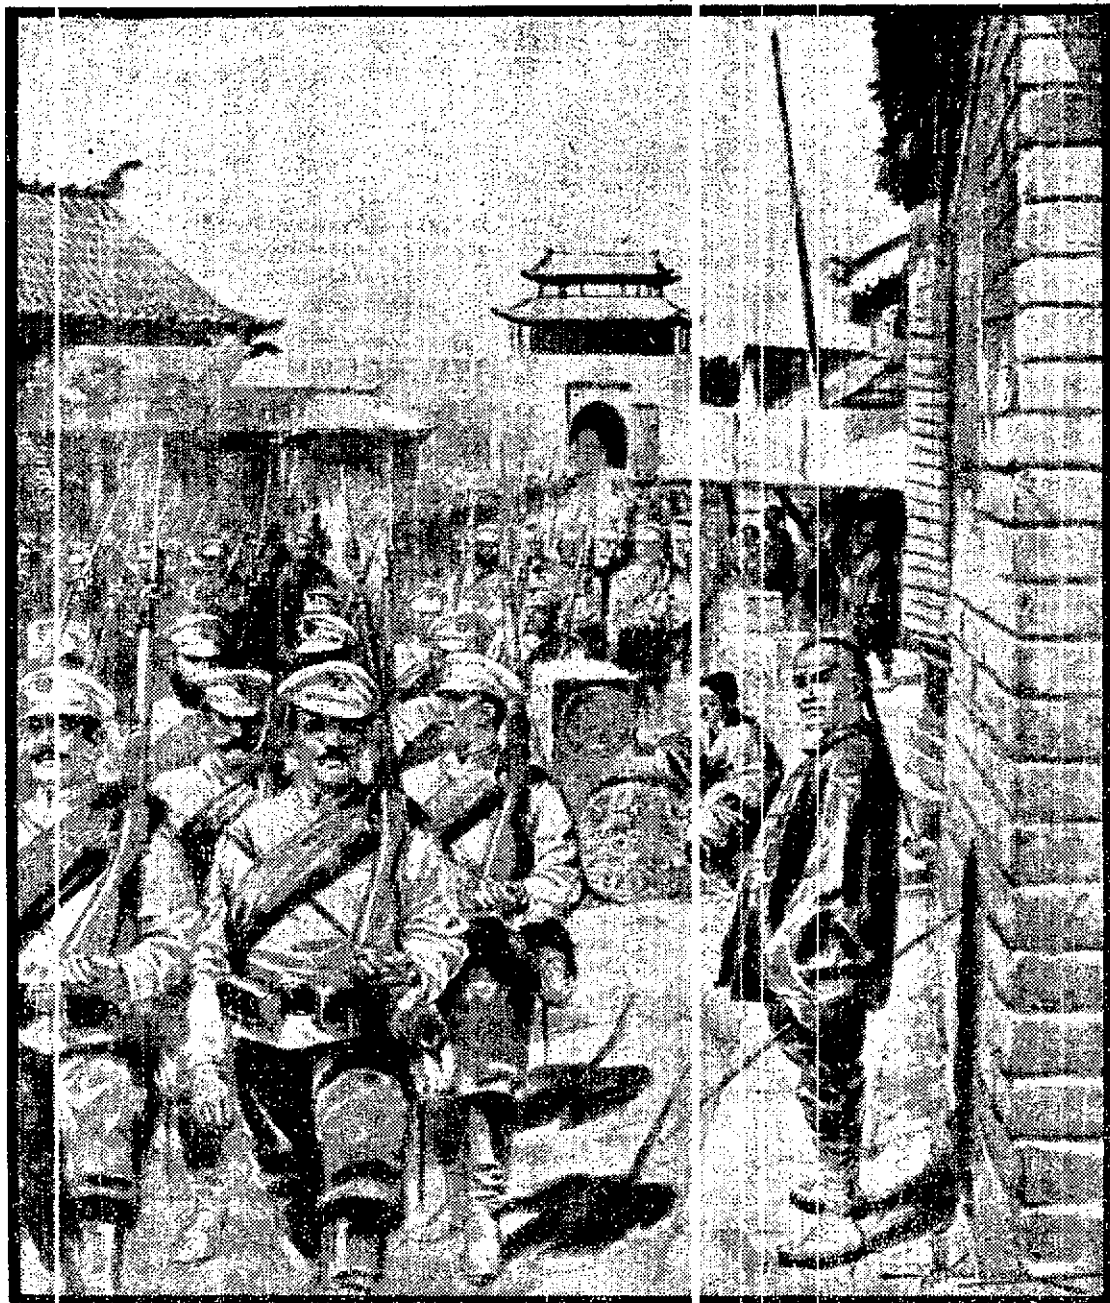

There is no evidence that the Japanese turning movement is nearly so extended. The only Japanese at this point are the scouts reported in these dispatches September 26. The only information received from Gen. Kuropatkin, timed 8 p. m. yesterday, is to the effect that the Japanese outposts east of the railroad along the Shakh river continue to throw out small detachments, but they are invariably met and repulsed by the Russian cavalry, which maintains close contact along the whole Japanese line. Daily skirmishes are occurring, but none of an important character.

A herd of cattle and a few horses have been captured by Cossacks.

According to information brought in by Russian scouts the main Japanese forces are still concentrating along the Yentai branch railroad and reinforcements are still crossing the Taitse river, using two pontoons at Benshiu five miles due east of Yentai station. From the latter fact it would appear that the preparations for the Japanese advance are more backward than heretofore supposed.

The information received at the war office concerning the situation at Port Arthur is not reassuring. The blockade at last seems to be effective. Admiral Togo's ships are arresting all the junks which try to enter the harbor and are sending them to Port Dalny. It is feared that this complete isolation may react upon the spirits of the garrison.

COMBATANTS AT LIAO-YANG: PART OF THE GARRISON NOW EXPELLED BY THE JAPANESE.

BOY BURGLAR WHERE LETTER CONFESSES CAME FROM

FRANK McLAUGHLIN STEALS TO BECOME A HUNTER.

Frank McLaughlin, a 15-year-old boy, was held to answer by Justice of the Peace Geary late yesterday afternoon on a charge of burglary. The lad has confessed to having broken into the store of J. J. Burke, at 1515 Broadway, on the night of July 15 last, and to have stolen $15. He was not satisfied with having visited the store once, but is alleged to have called again on the evening of September 6.

The boy confessed his wrongdoing to Deputy District Attorney Brown. At the preliminary examination yesterday, the lad said his object in turning burglar was to get enough money to become a hunter. He indicated another boy, but as there was no corroborative evidence, there will not be additional arrests.

This is one of the youngest burglars to be confined in the County Jail.

It is probable that there will be an attempt made to send him to the reform school, to give him an opportunity to turn over a new leaf.

APPRAISEMENT OF RONALDSON ESTATE.

The report of the appraisers, in the matter of the estate of Thomas Ronaldson was filed with the County Clerk this morning. The appraisers were L. J. Burke, A. H. Breed and John L. Lancy. They estimate the value of the estate to be $23,872.15. The estate consists of lots on Alcatraz avenue, Carroll street, Mariposa street, McKee street, Boise street, Tond street, Harmon street, a lot in Mountain View cemetery, a one-sixteenth interest in the sailing schooner "Kilg Cruise" and "Weatherwax," a promissory note for $786.40, executed by Henry Stedman to Alexander Peterson, and assigned to the deceased, cash in the sum of $13,590, small notes aggregating several hundred dollars and personal property worth less than a hundred dollars.

Mr. Ronaldson died on January 24 at his home, 944 Sixty-first street. The heirs are a wife and four grown children.

PARENTS CAN SEE CHILDREN.

By a modification of the divorce decree granted on May 3, 1903 to Jacob Woods, the parents of two minor children are to each have opportunity for seeing their offspring. Judge Ellsworth today directed that the father is to have the custody of a daughter, Margaret, during the months of June and July in each year, and for the remainder of the time the mother will have the child. A boy aged ten is to be in the care of the father, but the mother is to be allowed to visit him at stated intervals. Jacob Woods resides in Shasta county. His former wife is a hair dresser in this city, residing on Thirtieth street. DONNELLY MATTER IS AT LAST
EXPLAINED TO PUBLIC.

NEW YORK, September 28.—The letter alleged to have been received by Michael J. Donnelly, the leader of the meat strike, purporting to be one sent by President Roosevelt, was copied from an editorial in the New York Evening Post of August 1.

The Evening Post says today: "The letter appeared as an editorial in the Evening Post of August 1 and was explicitly stated to be a letter which the President 'MIGHT' have written with advantage to himself and the country."

"In other words, it was confessedly an imaginary letter, written for the sake of bringing out certain truths in regard to the meat strike."

The Evening Post also says: "We had no thought, of course, of being able to make even a presentable imitation of the President's literary style and as the article was at the time commented upon and reproduced somewhat extensively in the press we never dreamed of its coming to figure as a 'campaign forgery.'"

DONNELLY DENIES REPORT

PRESIDENT OF UNION SAYS HE RECEIVED NO LETTER FROM ROOSEVELT.

CHICAGO, September 28.—President Michael Donnelly of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers' Union flatly denies today ever having received a letter purporting to come from President Roosevelt.

Referring to the letter published in the "Citizen's Magazine" at Denver, Mr. Donnelly said: "I never received that letter or any other purporting to have come from President Roosevelt. I never wrote to Washington asking for intervention in the strike. It looks to me like a stupid piece of political work. The first I ever heard of the letter was when I read it in the papers."

Donnelly said he had not yet received the inquiry sent by Secretary Loeb.

JUDGE PARKER'S RECEPTION

Democrats Plan a Large Meeting in New York.

NEW YORK, September 28.—Nearly all of the details for the public reception to be given for Judge Parker at the Manhattan Club have been completed. The reception, unless some change is made, will be held on next Wednesday night.

Invitations will be extended to the Democratic National Committee, all members of the Parker Constitution Club and a number of other large Democratic organizations, including Tammany Hall. It is likely that Justice D. Cady Herick and Representative Francis Burton Harrison, candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, respectively, will attend. Judge Parker does not intend to speak at the reception and in fact no speaker of any kind will be made according to the present program.

Judge Parker saw many visitors today. They included David R. Hill, Charles F. Murphy, De Lacey Nicoll, Vice-Chairman of the National Committee; Don Farnsworth of Illinois; Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California and several Democratic managers.

The headquarters of Judge Parker, whenever he visits New York, will be made hereafter in the Hotel Seville. He expects to visit New York frequently.

"This does not mean, however," said one of the managers today, "that the candidate will visit this city every week. He has no intention now of coming, except when he feels that his presence will benefit the campaign."

In relation to a plan to divide the Presidential campaign territory under various responsible heads, it was stated today that National Chairman Taggart will no open permanent headquarters in the West. Mr. Taggart expects to visit Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin at frequent intervals, but that will not take him away from the active management of the National campaign.

GOES AGAINST FATHER

Young Tolstoi Has Some Views of His Own.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 28, 6:20 p. m.—Count Tolstoi's son, Leo, in an article in the Novoe Vremya, takes the position diametrically opposed to his father's.

He has just returned from seeing his brother, who is departing for the front and writes of the touching scenes he witnessed at Tamboff as the reserves left for the Far East. Nevertheless, young Tolstoi says, the peasants are all united in agreeing that the war must be fought out until Japan is subdued.

He adds:

"It is a hard time for Russia, but it is the period of her regeneration. The war in the Far East is a great war, such as Russia has not seen since the days of Peter the Great—a war for the protection of the eastern shores of the European-Asiatic continent just as in the days of Peter it was for the western shores."

"Just as in the war with the Swedes we suffered at Narva, but we conquered at Poltava, we are now suffering reverses with the Asiatic Swedes, but there will come a day when Japan will be vanquished."

In concluding young Tolstoi predicts the triumph of Russia, which, he declares, "is destined to become, instead of England, the greatest nation in the world."

He says the Slavs will spread over and absorb all the neighboring peoples they have already subjugated, in the Crimea, the Caucasus, Eastern Russia and Siberia, adding:

"Russia is the only power destined to realize the dream of world-conquest."

FIGHTING ALONG FRONT

Outposts of Both Armies
Are Constantly
Clashing.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 28.—A dispatch from General Kuropatkin dated yesterday afternoon, announces that numerous skirmishes have occurred along most parts of the Russian front. The Japanese have not altered their positions east of the railroad and confine themselves to outpost tactics to the north, all of which so far have been repulsed.

Reconnoissances by the Russian troops have established the fact that the main Japanese forces are still along the branch railroad to the Yen Tai mines. Both sides are in constant contact.

General Samsonoff's troops particularly have had frequent encounters, but have sustained few casualties. The Russians have captured some Japanese cattle and horses.

The Japanese have constructed some pontoon bridges over the Taitse river at Penshiu.

The General adds:

"On the night of September 26th, Colonel Mikhailov with a detachment of Ural Cossacks, attacked the Japanese at Khouthi, causing a great panic. The same day the Oriental Cossacks laid an ambush for half a squadron of Japanese cavalry, who returned their fire, but soon retired, having sustained considerable loss and leaving several dead on the field."

JAPANESE BOATS GO DOWN.

LONDON, September 28.—A dispatch to a news agency from Vladivostok says that according to reports from Port Arthur, two Japanese torpedo boats and a Japanese steamer have been sunk by mines outside Port Arthur during the last few days. A Japanese cruiser of the Nitaka type, it is added, was badly damaged.

WILL FLOAT A LARGE LOAN.

TOKIO, September 28 (Evening).—The Government has decided to float another domestic loan of 50,000,000 yen on conditions similar to those which governed the last loan, the price to be 22.05 per cent. The present prosperous condition of business indicates that the subscription to the loan will be very heavy. The Minister of Finance will meet the bankers of Tokio tomorrow and those of Osaka and Nagasaki Saturday to discuss the loan.

BURGLAR CAUGHT IN ACT

Tries to Enter a House and is Baffled by a Woman.

A burglar made an attempt to enter the residence of L. P. Madsen at 166 Seventh street about noon today, during the absence of the family. He had just succeeded in opening the back door with a skeleton key, when he was discovered by Mrs. Gilligan, a neighbor, who immediately notified the police.

Chief Hodgkins and Officers Agnew, Walters and Tobin answered the call. In an attempt to escape, the burglar ran, but the police gave chase, and he was captured at the corner of Sixth and Madison streets.

In his flight he had thrown the key, with which he had opened the door, between the house he had entered and the one adjoining, but a boy found the key and gave it to the police.

Just as the fellow was captured, Mrs. Madsen returned to her home and was glad to find that nothing had been disturbed.

She stated that at the time her home was entered she had for the first time left quite a sum of money in the house, besides other valuables. The burglar would have made a good haul if he had been successful in his attempt.

At the station the fellow gave the name of George Loftus.

LIVERMORE BANK SUES W. B. BARTLETT

The Bank of Livermore today filed papers in a suit brought to recover principal and interest amounting to $2,571.32, from W. B. Bartlett. In the petition the bank's officials declare that the sum of $1,750 was loaned to Mr. Bartlett on September 27, 1899, and that it was executed at that time for this amount, with security in the form of ranch property in this county. The bank swears that no part of the principal has ever been paid, and that the sum of $2,571.32 is now due.

It is stated by the petitioner that certain parties, mentioned in the suit as John Doe, and Jane Roe claim an interest in the property given to secure the bank's loan, and the court is asked to declare the bank's claim superior in law to any claim made by the John Doe people.

MEDIATION IS NOW IMPOSSIBLE.

ROME, September 28.—The Capitale, a semi-official organ, denied that the coming meeting between Premier Giolitti and Chancellor von Bulow at Hamburg is called with mediation in the Far Eastern war, and adds: "Not only the Italian, but all European governments, consider that mediation is impossible now when Russia fully trusts in her ability to turn the tide of battle in her favor, while Japan does not wish to lose the fruits of her victory."

COUNT TOLSTOI'S BROTHER DEAD

MOSCOW, September 28.—Count Sergis Tolstoi, the brother of Count Leo, is dead. He was the very antithesis of Count Leo, residing on his estate in lordly style and living the life of a veritable self-indulgent millionaire.

Count Sergis had two daughters, who are passionate admirers of their uncle and whose ideas they adopted in reference to marriage, one of them selecting a coachman as her mate.

TELLS STORY OF MURDER

Murderer Located by American Lawyers Make Officers in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—Traced to this city and located in the Western Hotel on Sixth street by Deputy Sheriff Stephen F. Walters of Marin County, George C. Frank was arrested last night for the murder of George W. Dewey, a miner on Sherlock Creek. Detective Tom Gibson was detailed to assist in making the arrest of Frank, and after the deputy and detective had been closeted with Frank for an hour he had fired in self defense. This is not considered by the authorities to be true, because the bullet entered at the back.

Frank's confession clears up a mystery which State officers have worked diligently for some months to solve. The clue on which Walters worked was meager, but it bore good fruit, to his gratification. It was only on suspicion that the arrest was made, and the confession forced by Gibson was a godsend. There was a woman at the bottom of the tragedy. She was Mrs. Jones, and her appearance caused a sensation in the mining town of Whittlock. Dewey soon became one of the favored of Mrs. Jones' admirers. She was not the sort of woman who liked to lead a quiet life and her escapades met with resentment on the part of a part of the community. A meeting was held and resolutions were adopted that Frank should be executed.

Frank was selected to serve the order on the woman. Dewey's anger was aroused by the proceedings, which he declared to be a disgrace. But the woman left the city and nothing further was thought about her. It was not known that he engaged in any quarrel with Frank over the matter. But a few weeks later Dewey's body was discovered, and that was apparently a couple of days after his death.

Frank did not disappear immediately, although it was said that he could be seen in the city and how it came that a bullet had pierced Dewey's body on the back. Then he disappeared and Deputy Sheriff Walters began to trace the fugitive. Walters spent a number of days in Frank's company here before asserting the arrest.

In his confession Frank asserted that Dewey had assaulted him with a gun. He said it was true that he had shot him, but he was not the murderer. He will be taken back to Marin County by Deputy Sheriff Walters.

Mrs. Jones is in the preliminary for having murdered her husband a short time after she had been ordered out of Whittlock.

BENEFIT FOR AN INJURED PLAYER

A benefit for the mother and sisters of Frank J. Cullen, the baseball player who is lying at the Revere Hospital with a broken neck, is to be given at Ford's Park next Sunday, when the Iver-Johnsons and the All Stars will cross bats in a game for the benefit of their doomed companion.

Cullen was captain of the Iver-Johnsons and last Sunday week went to Newark with his team to play a game of baseball and in making a slide for third base struck his head against the neck of the third baseman and broke his neck. The injury was not so complete as to kill Cullen outright, but his whole body is paralyzed and there is no hope of recovery for him. He retains all of his mental faculties and says that he is going to get well. The doctors, however, say no, and have refused to operate, saying that it would but hasten his death.

REFORM IN THE LAW

Suggestions About Trusts.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—The following report of the Committee on Jurisprudence and Law Reform submitted to the report, dealing with sales of honorary degrees and combinations of trusts. The report stated that a careful investigation throughout the country had been made to ascertain how far the evil of the sale of honorary degrees in law existed, and that but a single instance had been discovered in Tennessee.

Regarding the subject of combination in the form of trusts, the committee reported that under the clause of the constitution to regulate commerce, Congress has no power to create corporations, except those which have for their object the carrying on of exclusively interstate business. The report concluded by submitting a resolution:

"That the bill presented to Congress by the Maritime Law Association of the United States entitled 'An act to authorize the maintenance of actions for negligence causing death in maritime cases', is in the opinion of this association, one which supplies a defect in the law of the United States, and we earnestly recommend to Congress that it should take up and pass this bill."

JUDGE GETS EVEN

Calls Down the Former Foreman of the Grand Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—A few months ago Max Rosenfeld, as foreman of the Grand Jury, uttered criticisms of the Police Judges of this city, saying that dismissals were too frequent. In the capacity of private citizen Rosenfeld appeared in court and asked Judge Mogar to dismiss a case without hearing the evidence, causing Mogar to make some caustic remarks.

"I consider that you are stultifying yourself," Judge Mogar said. "I remember that it was not long ago that you were slandering me when you were foreman of the Grand Jury. I went before the Grand Jury to refute that slander and the accusation was not repeated there. I told them why there were so many dismissals as complained of by Mr. Rosenfeld. I consider that I came out of the Grand Jury room with flying colors. No, I will not dismiss this case on the request of Mr. Rosenfeld."

It was the case of L. J. Croel, who was charged with defrauding an automobile company. After hearing the evidence the case was dismissed, but Judge Mogar remarked, not because Rosenfeld requested, but because the evidence justified.

Croel testified that he had not hired the automobile, but that a friend had, and he supposed he was merely a guest. He was astonished when he was asked to pay, and refused to do so. Since then the bill, amounting to $25, has been paid.

Rosenfeld is one of the partners in the Auto Livery Company, at Golden Gate avenue and Ontario street, which made the charge against Croel.

FAIRBANKS IN AN ACCIDENT

WHITE HILL, Mont., September 27.—The only approach to an accident that has occurred on Senator Fairbanks' tour occurred today at Logan, in this State.

It consisted in breaking off of the steps on one side of the private car Edgemore. There was a brief stop at this point and the lower step was let down when the train started it struck the station platform, resulting in the demolition of the entire series of steps.

Colonel Randall stood on the steps but escaped without injury.

Senator Fairbanks was still standing on the station platform and did not try to enter the car until the train came to a full stop again.

GAMBLERS GO TO COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—Judge Cook has issued an injunction returnable October 2, restraining the police from interfering with any of the places conducted by the Woe Ong Tong Association of Chinatown.

The Woe Ong Tong Association is said to be a corporation of societies which control gambling in Chinatown. They are incorporated as social clubs, but it is said that the real purpose is to conduct gambling dens. In all there are 107 places claiming to be members of the association, and the injunction estops the police from making arrests and breaking up the nefarious places.

In spite of the fact that it is claimed that they are social clubs, the doors are all heavily bolted and barred, and no one without the password can gain admittance.

Chief Wittman has said that if the injunction is dissolved he will stop gambling in Chinatown, and Sergeant Christensen, who is in charge of the Chinatown squad, is most anxious to begin work with axes and sledges on the heavy iron-bound doors that guard the entrance to these gambling dens.

NOTED ST. LOUIS DIVINE PASSES AWAY.

Rev. Dr. Robert, Full of Years and Virtues, Answers the Master's Call.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., September 27.—The Rev. Dr. P. G. Robert passed away here yesterday. The deceased was the father of Dent H. Robert, managing editor of the San Francisco "Examiner." Dr. Robert was one of the most widely known Episcopal ministers of the city and for many years pastor of the Church of the Holy Communion, Leffingwell and Washington avenues. He had been a resident of St. Louis since 1859, and his successful ministry built up one of the largest Episcopal parishes in the city, occupying a splendid house of worship.

Dr. Robert and Mrs. Robert would have celebrated their golden wedding on October 5th, and already preparations were under way for the event.

The deceased was born in Richmond, Va., December 15, 1827. He was educated in a private school at Richmond and then went to a theological college at Alexandria, Va. He married Elizabeth Scott, a daughter of Edward P. Scott, twice Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia in 1854, and up to the beginning of the Civil War engaged in church work. When the war began he enlisted in the Thirtieth Virginia Regiment as Chaplain, and was with General Lee for nearly two years. He then went to the Second Louisiana Regiment, under the command of General "Stonewall" Jackson, and served until the close of the war.

When peace was declared he accepted a call from Christ Church of Little Rock and remained there until 1869, when he was compelled to move on account of his poor health. He came from Little Rock to St. Louis.

The heavy strain of his unceasing work and his age began to tell on him seven years ago, and he was forced to retire from the pulpit. He did so with reluctance, and continued his studies in his library at home. He wrote for several religious magazines and was not content unless his mind was occupied in his life's work.

Sitting in his large armchair one night about three weeks ago, he said that he did not get up stairs then he felt that he would be unable to climb the steps alone, he felt so weak. He went to bed and never was able to leave it after that. Although members of the family knew that he was in a very feeble condition no great alarm was felt until about a week ago, when Dent H. Robert, a former city editor of the "Republic," and at present managing editor of the San Francisco "Examiner," was notified. The others sons live at St. Louis.

Dr. Robert belonged to the Masonic and several other orders and was noted for his broad culture and his Catholic spirit. All the St. Louis papers print eulogies of the life-work and character of the deceased divine.

DAMAGE BY THE STORM

Weather Bureau Gave Two Young Men Brought to Justice by Dogs.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—The record September rainstorm in California has become history. It lasted the good part of four days, during which there was precipitated from three to five inches of rain. A large fall of snow in the mountains and foothills threatened greater part of the State was also a feature of the storm.

It is too early to make an estimate of a correct estimate of the damages and benefits resulting from the severe and protracted storm at this particular season of the year. There have been losses, and no doubt heavy ones in the aggregate, and there have been some compensating offsets, which cannot be so well appreciated now as they will be hereafter.

The excellent arrangements of the weather bureau, in connection with the general expectations of a rainstorm this month, led prudent people to make all possible preparations to minimize the damage that might result. Few were draughted entirely unprepared for rain, for a September without any rain is a new experience in this State. But no one expected such a deluge and heavy downpour, and in that particular the preparations were inadequate.

OGDEN, Iowa, Sept. 27.—Bloodhounds placed upon the trail of the suspected incendiaries traced Elton and Earl Hayer to the home of their father, Ors Hayer, a prominent farmer and the boys are before the Grand Jury today.

Indictments are expected.

Their arrest followed a series of barn burnings and dwelling-house blazes.

IS WANTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

JOHN R. BLANEY WILL GO EAST FOR TRIAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—A telegraphic message has been received from J. S. Wright, Chief of Police at Holyoke, Mass., asking the local police to hold John R. Blaney, who is wanted for himself Saturday night, until an officer can arrive here with extradition papers. Chief Wright said he held a warrant for Blaney's arrest charging embezzlement.

Blaney is waiting patiently the arrival of the officer and would willingly go back without the formality of extradition papers, but the Massachusetts officers evidently do not care to act with great haste. The prisoner is too anxious to see his family and take his accusers to stop for formalities.

For more than fifteen years Blaney was the treasurer of the Wire Weavers' Union at Holyoke. He was tried in Holyoke in July and became a fugitive from justice. He went to Chicago and then to Texas and finally to this city, arriving here five years ago. With only 10 cents left and no opening here to get work he decided to give up and get back to his family. He said that he would rather serve five years than be separated from his wife and six children so that he could not even see them. He has been in communication with his wife since he left home.

STOLE VALUABLE DIAMONDS

Confess Guilt and Sent to Prison for Long Term.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 27.—William Smith and Charles Jennings to-day confessed to the theft of $10,000 worth of diamonds from O. Cohen last June and were sentenced to fourteen years each in the State Penitentiary.

The diamonds were taken from Cohen's safe which the robbers dynamited.

The robbers were returned to this city from Chicago several months ago.

DOCTORS DO NOT AGREE.

INVESTIGATION BEING HELD IN SAN FRANCISCO THIS AFTERNOON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—This afternoon Health Officer D. F. Ragan conducted the examination of Dr. Carl Wilson, late of the emergency service, charged with insubordination by Chief Surgeon Stephen. Dr. Stephen made his allegation against the deposed surgeon, and Dr. Wilson gave his version of the disagreement, which happened over the telephone on Wednesday, September 14th, during the competitive drill of Knights Templar in Golden Gate Park.

Wilson, who was on duty at the Park Hospital, found fault with his chief for assigning Dr. Boskowitz to ambulance duty at the parade ground in the park, and when Stephen made a show of his authority the younger physician challenged him to take the matter "to higher authorities."

Dr. Boskowitz has been asked to give his account of what happened when doctors disagreed.

HE FELL INTO THE BAY.

WALKED OFF END OF THE DOCK BY MISTAKE.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—Hans Thorsen, who lives at 22 Sacramento street, got too near the edge of the Washington street wharf last night about midnight and suddenly found he was taking a bath in the bay. Officer Gibson, who pulled him out of the water, says that Thorsen walked off the end of the dock as if he was confident he could make Goat Island without the aid of a boat.

He was taken to the Harbor Hospital, where he slept until his clothes were dry and he had regained a normal state of consciousness.

INJURED IN AN ELEVATOR.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 27.—Fred Funch, an employee of a transfer company, was seriously injured in an elevator at the Hotel St. Francis. Funch brought a trunk to the hotel and carried it to the freight elevator. The operator was not at hand and the expressman tried to run the cage.

In some manner he lost control of the gear of the elevator. He was caught between the cage and the shaft and could not stop the machinery. He was promptly removed to the Central Emergency Hospital and was treated by a doctor sent by the hotel management.

It was found that Funch was suffering from a broken rib and severe contusions and abrasions of the lower part of the face. He was semi-conscious at the hospital and could give no coherent account of the accident.

This morning Funch was removed to his home, 614 Polson street.

Bolero jacket fronts are not always worn open. Some are hooked and some are invisibly stayed on one or both sides. But the newer scheme is to have the fronts connected with loops of jassamen-teris, ribbon or hosiery braiding. It is not so neat, but the all-over lace is usually bordered in lawn blouse. Across the the loops go in a series. This is especially handsome in tulle or wool costumes.

A Tempest in a Teapot

"I've a good mind to shake you out of your boots," said an angry misdemaneant to a little Yankee constable. "If you do, you've got to shake the hull State of Massachusetts," retorted the tipstaff. This anecdote will serve to illustrate the pother that is being made over the arrest and fining by a Bay State justice of an attaché of the British Embassy for speeding his automobile beyond legal limits. The whole State of Massachusetts is being shaken. According to the prevailing theory of international law the Third Secretary of the British Embassy is the whole British Empire, and this august power a rural police justice has fined and ordered to jail for contempt. London is aghast, amazed, outraged, indignant and a f a mind to fight. The State Department at Washington is in sackcloth and ashes, the Governor of Massachusetts has put the Sacred Cofish in the State House in mourning and has notified the justice aforesaid that he has committed an awful crime against the comity of nations in general and the Majesty of King Edward the Seventh in particular. He must forthwith remit the fine and apologize to the attaché whose person he has attached and whose loose coin he has sequestered. Such a frightful howdy-yedo has not been witnessed since the discovery of the Gunpowder plot. The British lion is showing his teeth and threatening to roar while the American Eagle sits shivering on his perch. The spectacle ought to inspire some musical genius to write a comic opera. But after all is said and done, one is likely to inquire if the Third Secretary of the British Embassy really speeded his automobile faster than the law of Massachusetts allows. If so, who shall be done with the offender? He cannot be arrested or fined, but he can be recalled at the instance of our Government. If he is in law the British Government, then the British Government should be made to understand that it cannot run its monarchical automobiles at a dangerous speed over American highways.

Judge Parker has not yet expressed his opinion of President Roosevelt's call for a peace conference at The Hague. Probably he is incubating a theory which will square with representing Roosevelt to be actuated by a desire to plunge the country into a general war.

The late Benjamin F. Langford, who died at his home near Lodi, San Joaquin county, a few days ago, was a splendid type of the American pioneer, a type that is rapidly passing away. Born on the frontier and practically self educated, he made his way in the world by shrewd common sense and the adaptability to all conditions and circumstances peculiar to the distinct American type. During his life he was at different times miner, teamster, merchant, farmer, railroad promoter and financier. He loved blooded horses and had a decided taste for politics. It was said that he was never beaten in politics or a horse trade. Withal, he was generous to a fault, charitable, genial and hearty in his friendships. He sat for twenty-one years consecutively in the State Senate from a county no mally Republican, though he was a staunch Democrat, and then voluntarily retired because the weight of years and the cares of business were bearing too heavily on him. His honesty was unimpeachable, while his effectiveness as a legislator was indisputable. In his homely way knowing men as he did, he could accomplish more than the great majority of men of more polish and greater gifts of speech. He did much to develop the fruit growing interests of San Joaquin county, and was himself a pioneer in horticultural development. He was hospitable and neighborly in the highest degree—a good man in all respects, who will be borne in kindly recollection by all who knew him in life.

REGISTER, VOTERS! TODAY IS YOUR LAST CHANCE. THE REGISTER WILL CLOSE AT MIDNIGHT. THIS IS THE LAST CALL.

The time has arrived for the Republicans to put more ginger into the campaign. The election is only six weeks off, the nominations all made and the registration about ended. Democratic apathy should not be imitated by Republicans, who again find their policy and administrative methods challenged and denounced by the traditional opponent of national evolution. While California is certain to go for Roosevelt by a large majority, there are contests in at least four of the Congressional districts that call for vigorous and effective work. The prospect is good for reclaiming the seats occupied by three Democratic Congressmen if the Republicans will on y perfect their organization and work with a will; but there is danger in over-confidence and inaction. Every effort should be made to bring out a full vote in every precinct, and this cannot be done save by intelligent and systematic work. Therefore, the Republican voters in every ward and precinct throughout the State should get together at once and organize for effective campaign work. Frequent meetings and interchange of views will stimulate party enthusiasm and infuse warmth and activity into the campaign. California should roll up a banner majority for Roosevelt and send to Washington a solid delegation to back him up in Congress. Every Republican should line up and do his best for the ticket.

Says the Fresno Republican: "Tom Watson of Georgia, Populist candidate for President, thrashed a negro hack driver at Houston, Texas, last night, for offering to seat a negro passenger in the same carriage with him. This incident, properly exploited, ought to carry Texas for Watson." If this is intended for sarcasm it misses the point. For it to have point a majority of the voters of Texas must have blackguardly instincts. This is hardly supposable.

The publication of a forged letter purporting to have been written by President Roosevelt, denouncing the labor unions, recalls the trick by which California and Nevada were carried against Garfield in 1880. The Morey letter forgery played on the anti-Chinese sentiment of this coast, which at that time was intensely aroused over Mongolian immigration. Just now the union labor sentiment is at an excited pitch and extremely sensitive, particularly so in Colorado where the executive authority has resorted to acts of illegal tyranny. However, the attempt to manufacture political capital for the Democratic ticket by felonious methods will prove abortive this time. The Morey letter taught the people a lesson which they have not yet forgotten, and besides, the stamp of falsehood has been placed on the forged epistle before it has had time to work much mischief. The forgery itself is clumsy to the verge of absurdity. It is a letter purporting to be written by the President to Michael Donnelly, who directed the stockyard strike, but every line of it shows its purpose and its fraudulent character.

It is to be hoped that the result of the attempt to carry a bond election by hurling stinkpots and trying to silence debate by angry personal denunciation will impress its own moral. That is not the way to persuade people to tax themselves, nor is it calculated to convert opponents or smooth away objections. It is worse than folly to attempt to suppress free speech and silence by animadversion and recrimination the expression of individual opinion. Public intelligence and the popular sense of fair play alike revolt at such methods. The cause of progress can only be advanced by appeals to reason and enlightened sentiment, not by browbeating.

HOW DOES THE WAGE EARNER FARE?

The measure of prosperity that belongs to the wage-earners of this country—a very large percentage, if not a large majority, of the population—must be a matter of great concern to the people generally. The free trader is now insisting that the American obtains no benefit from the protective system. One way to ascertain the truth is to take general results bearing upon the subject as they appear in a country that has protection and in a country that has free trade.

1. In the United States there is practically no pauper class. There are paupers, but the total number is so small in comparison with the whole mass of the people that it can hardly be indicated by percentage figures. England, on the other hand, has more paupers than any other civilized country upon the earth. They are said to number one-thirtieth of her population and to require $40,000,000 a year for their support. It is asserted that one-third of the population of London or 1,250,000 people, are in abject poverty. It is not by accident that the only free trade nation has this heavy and shameful burden upon its taxpayers.

2. The great stream of immigration that comes to this country from all the world is the proof that all the world is convinced of the existence here of a better chance for the working man. Whether we like the incoming of the strangers, or whether we are wise or foolish in permitting them to come, is not the point. That they do come is a vast multitude, and that they come here in hordes that never are attracted in like manner to other countries, demonstrate that we offer special advantages to workers; and the fact is a notable one that immigration always increases when we have a high tariff and decrease when the Democrats reduce the duties.

3. The surest index of the prosperity of the American workman is the condition of the savings banks. The patrons of these institutions are almost altogether wage-earners, other capitalists using other kinds of banks and other kinds of investments. Observe the following figures:

	Depositors in savings banks.	Deposits in savings banks.
1860.....	693,870	$149,000,000
1890.....	4,258,803	1,525,000,000
1900.....	6,100,000	2,450,000,000
1903.....	7,000,000	2,935,000,000

Deposits in British savings banks in 1902 were $959,300,000, or less than one-third the American deposits.

It may be urged that these figures correspond to the growth of population, and do not prove that the people are having increased prosperity. The population in 1860 was 30,500,000. In 1903 it was 80,000,000. Therefore

The population increased about 160 per cent.

The savings deposits increased about 900 per cent.

This seems to be conclusive. The wage-earners make more money than they ever did, and they save more.

4. But there is direct testimony from a disinterested witness. In 1902 Mr. Alfred Moseley, at the head of an industrial commission sent to this country to examine the industrial situation, looked carefully into the condition of American working men. In his report published upon his return home Mr. Moseley frankly confessed that the American wage-earner is much better off than the British wage-earner. We can give here but a sentence or two from the report:

"That the American workman earns higher wages is beyond question. * * * He is infinitely better paid, therefore better housed, fed, clothed, and is, moreover, much more sober. * * * In the United States manufacturers rather welcome large earnings by their men."

One of the questions before the American people today is whether these conditions, confessedly existing under high protection, will continue to exist with no tariff protection.

Would it be wise to take a chance?—Philadelphia North American.

DEFEAT OF THE OAKLAND BOND PROPOSITIONS

The electors of the city of Oakland have defeated by a decisive vote the series of propositions to issue bonds for public improvements. It may be regretted that all the propositions involved were lost because a few were bad. Some of them were meritorious and designed for the best interests of Oakland.

Unfortunately certain issues—notably that for the purchase of Central Park—were clearly impolitic and even tainted with dishonesty. The price asked for the Central Park property was far too high, and it was pretty well understood that the City Hall proposition was more than dubious in point of honesty.

These things cannot be concealed from the voters. The policy of "The Examiner" has always been to favor public improvements, and no objection would have been raised in these columns or the ground that the issue would have involved increased taxation. If public improvements are desired higher taxes are a necessary consequence.

The single objection raised in these columns was that some of the propositions were dishonest.

If the people of Oakland will get together and formulate a series of propositions to issue bonds for public improvements and see that all dishonest or unfair schemes are eliminated we can promise them the fullest support that a newspaper can give.—San Francisco Examiner.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 28.—John A. C. Diener pleaded not guilty to a charge of disturbing the peace and demanded a jury trial yesterday morning when arraigned before Judge R. B. Tappan on a charge preferred by his wife, Mrs. Diener, alleging that her husband from whom she has been separated for some time, came to her home at night, and when she barred the door against him fired a pistol shot through it, the bullet narrowly missing the head of his son, aged 21 years, and lodging in the woodwork. The defendant declares he will prove an alibi, as he asserts he was in San Francisco on the night of the shooting. The case will be tried on October 4th at 9 a. m.

CAR JUMPS TRACK.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 28.—A trolley car on the main line of the Oakland Transit Consolidated in this city left the track at Chestnut street while west-bound on Santa Clara avenue yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and tore at a mad pace into an iron pole and a tree. The accident was due to a defective rail.

The impact uprooted an acacia tree twenty feet high and bent the iron pole. One passenger, the wife of Captain Henry F. Weeden of 1217 Paru Oneatreet, was injured. Mrs. Weeden sat inside in the forward part of the car and received a shock which stunned her temporarily. She was attended by Dr. A. F. Stafford and taken to her home. The trolley car, which escaped without much damage, was laid off at the power-house.

CHARGE OF FRAUD DENIED BY LAWYER.

Denial of fraud charges made by Jeannie de Soza against her attorney, Frederick Russell, is contained in the lawyer's answer to the woman's complaint. Russell filed his reply to Mrs. De Soza's charge yesterday and in it declared that at no time had he made misrepresentations by means of which the woman assigned to him her interest in a $35,000 estate, to one-third of which she was heirless. He admits the assignment but says it was for a valuable consideration.

Mrs. De Soza was married while she and her husband were imprisoned in the County Jail for vagrancy. When her uncle, James Scobie, bequeathed her an interest in his estate she assigned it to Attorney Russell, but later sought to have the assignment rescinded null and void, declaring that it was given as the result of fraudulent representations on the lawyer's part. He was alleged to have told her that it would be necessary to make such an assignment in order to protect her interests.

NEW YORK, September 28.—Judge Parker and Former Senator David B. Hill were in conference today in the Judge's apartments.

RECALLING OLD TIMES.

That now-famous offer of the Mikado to allow the non-combatants to leave Port Arthur is one of those incidents of which warfare between civilized nations furnishes many examples. "The Duke of Wellington was a stickler for etiquette in this connection. It is on record how, after the battle of Waterloo, he sent to inquire concerning his health, the friendly message being accompanied with a present of vegetables, which were said to be scarce in Junot's camp. The great duke was especially punctilious in any matter affecting the honor or convenience of women and children. Said, during the Peninsular War, hearing that there were many wounded English in an adjacent village, he forthwith sent an ambulance, and all the time Charles Napier was a prisoner he was treated as if he were a prince. Napier, who was taken to a fortress on the Spanish coast by a frigate commanded by his majesty, who was then the Duke of Clarence. The Duke took place at night. Chambers completed a beautiful picture from some rough sketches that were in the king's possession, and when submitted to him, proved his majesty was delighted with it, but Chambers had taken an artist's liberty with the picture and the king had introduced some sea-gulls skimming the waves. "Hullo, hullo, Chambers!" said his majesty, "this will never do to have the birds flying about at night. They were all gone to roost." "So they were, your majesty," replied Chambers, "but you gave such a rousing breakfast with your guns, that they all woke up and flew about." "Ah, so I did," said his majesty, "I forgot that! Very good! Very good!"

At Pointe Les Montees, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, is a lighthouse, the keeper of which recently turned out the sand an odd-style sword bearing on its blade the date "1711." It is the relic of a relic of the ill-fated expedition of Admiral Walker, who left England in 1711 with 11,000 men and a large fleet to take Quebec and Montreal. When he got to seven islands he was overtaken by a dense fog and a great storm arose. He refused to take the advice of a French pilot as a result the British ships were dashed to pieces on the rocks off Egg island and next spring 900 bodies were lying there.

WALKING IN A CIRCLE.

"Men lost in a fog, or in a forest, or in a desert, walk in circles because one leg is longer than the other," said a biologist to a Sunday News man recently.

"If you take a number of men and measure them, you will find them to be uneven. Not more than 7 or 8 per cent will have legs of equal length. About 30 per cent will have the left leg longer than the right, and 60 per cent will have the right longer than the left. On getting lost, make a circle to the left. A longer right leg causes a right circle."

"In walking, you see, we make V's. Each leg moves forward and outward. The leg that is longer necessarily makes the longer step, and this longer step necessarily goes farther outward than the shorter. Hence when we are lost the circle to the left or right, according to the legs' inequality."—Newark News.

DARK CLOTHES ARE HOTTER.

M. Flammarion, the diverting French astronomer, with a Jules Verne imagination, recently made an interesting experiment by which hot weather victims should be able to profit. He placed two thermometers, one of ordinary glass, the other painted black in the sun. In the white glass the mercury rose to 144 (C). Under the black glass it went up to 157. M. Flammarion therefore concludes that people who wear black in summer are some 13 degrees warmer than those who dress in white. In other words, men, generally speaking, are greater sufferers from the heat than women. Also, for the benefit of victims who go around in top hats, M. Flammarion tells them that putting on a silk hat, and standing in the July sun for an hour, a thermometer placed on your skull beneath the hat will register from 107.5 to 115.

Until recently all Russian prisoners were taken to Matsuyama, and Mr. Gulick has had special opportunities of knowing what he speaks, that city having been his home for the past seven years. The larger part of the views are the reproductions of photographs taken only by special permit from the Japanese Government. A few were given Mr. Gulick by one of the Russian prisoners.

NEW YORK, September 28.—Lawyers from San Francisco are reported to be now in this city, preparing for a fight in the courts against the will of the late Miss Bertha M. Dolbeer of California, who leaped from a window on the ninth floor of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. She left most of her estate, valued at $2,000,000, to her traveling companion, Miss Edith M. Wren. A special commission will come here from San Francisco within the next few days, it is said, to take testimony with a view to proving that Miss Dolbeer was of unsound mind when she made her will. CROCKER SUES PARIS SURGEON

NEW YORK, September 28.—George H. Crocker of New York and San Francisco has instructed his attorneys to institute suit for the recovery of $20,000 alleged to have been paid a well-known Paris surgeon and discoverer of a serum for the treatment of cancer. The treatment was given to Mrs. Emma Ruthford Crocker last spring in France, but she died a few months later at Newport, R. I., having been brought to America after hope of curing her life was abandoned.

Mr. Crocker asserts that the injections of serum only weakened the patient and finally were discontinued. He had been compelled to pay the full fee in advance and has instructed his attorneys to turn over any sum they may recover to the Pasteur Institute of Paris for its use.

TORMENTING RHEUMATISM

Columbus, Ohio, May 20, 1903.

Six years ago I had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I was laid up in bed for six months, and the doctors I had did me no good. They changed medicines every week and nothing they prescribed seemed to help me. Finally I began the use of S. S. S. My knee and elbow joints were swollen terribly, and at one time my joints were so swollen and painful that I could not close them when opened. I was so bad that I could not move knee or foot. I was getting discouraged, you may be sure, when I began S. S. S., but as I saw it was helping me I continued it, and to-day I am a sound well man and have never had a return of the disease. S. S. S. purified my blood and cured me of my severe case of rheumatism after everything else had failed. I have recommended it to others with good results.

R. H. CHAPMAN. 1355 Mt. Vernon Ave.

The poisonous acids that produce the inflammation and are absorbed into the blood and rheumatism can never be conquered till these are neutralized and filtered out of the blood and system. S. S. S. goes directly into the circulation and attacks the disease itself. It purifies and restores the blood to a healthy, vigorous condition. It contains no poison, alkali or other strong mineral, but is guaranteed entirely vegetable. Write us and our physicians will advise without any charge whatever. Our book on Rheumatism sent free.
